A LARGE TYPE EDITION IS AVAILABLE - INQUIRE AT THE INFORMATION DESK!

is a winner. It's close, it's reasonable, and the staff was as good as the food, which was great. Dinner was perfectly grilled fresh halibut with tender braised potatoes and slightly crisp vegetable medley. The sourdough bread arrived at the table still warm from the oven. The damage? $16.37, plus tip. For the "tightly budgeted," appetizers are $2.49 in the lounge from 4-7PM and 9PM-close. Take the 176th St. exit (right) from the parking lot and follow to Southcenter, then turn left at the light. It's the first driveway on the right.

Spencer's - Hilton hotel lobby. (Reviewer's name not included with submission.) On a budget? Try Spencer's Steak House Soup. Made with vegetables and strips of sirloin, it's more a thick stew than a soup. Served with crusty sourdough bread, it's a meal by itself for only $6.50 plus tip.
